

A plugin basically is designed for a specific functionality, it enhances the functionalities of the theme. A plugin gives additional features to the site. A plugin gives an interior effect While a theme gives an external interface of the website. It alters the site layout and presentation.